Dear parishioners of St. Thomas More and St. Bernadette,
Today the Church is celebrating Divine Mercy Sunday. Divine Mercy Sunday calls us to stand in the light of a love that never gives up on us. Born from the visions of Saint Faustina Kowalska and embraced by Pope John Paul II, this feast is a radiant reminder that God's mercy is not just for the worthy- it is for the weary, the broken, and the searching. It is a day to let grace wash over every shadow of doubt, to believe that your story can be rewritten with hope, and to trust that the heart of Christ- pouring forth rays of red and white— is open wide for you. His mercy is not a distant promise; it is here, now, ready to renew your soul. On this special day, let mercy inspire your steps: speak life into weary hearts, extend kindness where it's least expected, and carry the light of compassion into every corner of your world. Mercy is the heartbeat of love—and it can begin with you today.
