Second Reading: 2 Corinthians 13:11-13
Gospel: John 3:16-18

The doctrine of the Trinity teaches that there is one God in three distinct Persons: the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit. Each Person is fully God, equal in majesty, power, and eternity. Yet they are not three gods, but one divine Being, sharing the same divine nature. The Father is unbegotten, the Son is begotten of the Father, and the Holy Spirit proceeds from the Father and the Son. This mystery reveals the inner life of God as a perfect communion of love and unity. The Trinity stands at the heart of the Christian faith, shaping how believers understand God and relate to him.
